CAROLINE GARCIA X ETAM : THE SECOND ROUND

Building on a successful collaboration initiated in early 2023, Etam renews its partnership with France's tennis number one, Caroline Garcia.

This season, Garcia expands her sporty lingerie line with the brand, adding "Tennis Club" outfits to be showcased at exclusive spring events, in addition to the sports bras and panties she co-created with Etam last spring.

Titled "Champion of Champions 2022" by the newspaper L'Equipe, Garcia stands as France's top player and among the world's best. In 2024, she sets her sights on Olympic glory in July and her ultimate dream: winning a Grand Slam.

Boxing

"Handball? It was the only sport where guys actually wanted to be on my team... That made me believe in myself."

Achievements

Gold medalist at the 2020 Olympics, two-time World Champion, and European Champion.

Commitments

She dedicates herself to introducing sports to the younger generation by organizing a handball camp for girls aged 12 to 15.

"Being an athlete is a blessing. I cherish each moment as if it were my last. I absolutely love the present."

Achievements

Bronze medalist at the London Olympics and silver medalist at the Rio Olympics in the under 78 kg (middleweight) category.

Commitments

A high-level athlete with a diverse skill set, she's a serial entrepreneur who has launched her own clothing line and opened a restaurant.

"Her charisma in the ring was so captivating, it made me want to be like her. Before I fell in love with boxing, I was inspired by her (Laila Ali)."

Achievements

Five-time French champion, European champion in 2023.

Journey

She stumbled upon boxing at 18 while watching a documentary about Laila Ali, daughter of the legendary Muhammad Ali.
